Current

This is the old script for Duncan Donuts, made by Mel in August-September 2024. She made this script when Episode 131 was in production, so when it was done, she could immediately put it on the original document.

In this case, when an entire document is Comfoorta Bold, that means the episode is cancelled. The document the script was on was originally called "loo_duncan_donuts" and was on Notes.

Legacy of Oopsies: loo_duncan_donuts

Scene 0 - Untitled

Lore I: Garnet... what do you want me to do?

Garnet: K... k... ki... nothing!

Lore I: You said ki, what was wrong?

Garnet: Ki! Like the ci in Cyw!

Lore I: It sounded a bit like kill, don't you think?

Also, like my new bow tie?

Garnet: Wait, you have a bowtie redesign... that means...

Episode 132 Intro

Garnet: Here you are in the future, and it's bright!

Lore I: No I'm not...

Garnet: You'll get a voice actor!

Steven: Bigger and better!

Garnet: You're not so far!

Lore I: I put the bowtie as a decoration, can't you see?

Garnet: That's a sign of the future!

Cue intro and title card

Scene 1 - Untitled

HKTito Lore 7: It's a nice NIGHT to go bird watching, isn't it, I? That's a sign of the future ahead of us.

Lore I: That's what Garnet said. What do you see in the sky, and why do you have a telescope?

HKTito Lore 7: Look at that thing!

Lumalee: Gurke... gurke...

HKTito Lore 7: Gurke? That's a cucumber, yummy.

Lore I: Gurke is a massive green vat that will come and kill everyone. Seven, you can't trust it.

HKTito Lore 7: I, that's German for cucumber!

Lore I: No it's not! You can't be in control of everything for once.

HKTito Lore 7: I haven't been in episodes for a while, I'm a very underrated character don't you assume?

Lore I: Yeah, but now we're here.

You know what; I'll take my leave. Bye horrible Oopsies!

HKTito Lore 7: Quitters are losers! Bye you and bye bad Steven!

Outside

Steven: Uh, I, don't you think you should stay for longer?

Lore I: And why should I?

Steven: Because you're very young and this could hurt you!

See the villain club? BookNote, EDP, SYLVIE FOR GOSH'S SAKE!

Lore I: I still have my Oopsies power, don't I?

Steven: Yeah, but we don't have specific types of power!

Lore I: If you want me to rejoin, I can, but it's not gonna be nice at all.

Steven: I don't want "nice", I want a loyal, Oopsie friend, that will help me when in need, and will actually refer us to "Goopes" now, now that we're gone.

Lore I: Well, this has to be Oopsies because this is NOT loyal to the show's legacy.

Garnet: Legacy?

Steven: Silence, Garnet. There is a problem that needs to be solved out here, and we can give genuine advice and we will not putting a bandaid on someone's CENSORED EPISODE 132 rather than giving her an actual tampon, which is the right thing.

Garnet: I wasn't here where that happened, can you explain to me?

Steven: It was in Episode 2 and our favourite viewer, Alpha Lexa, did not like it at all.

Garnet: Well, if the children like it, then that's what matters.

Steven: No it doesn't at all. All of you are dehumanizing AFAB individuals, and this is insensitive. That's all!

Alpha Lexa offscreen: Bravo! Bravo! Bravo...

Studio

Grey: Uh... ba ba ba ba ba ba ba bababababa Ui? (maybe don't react in the recording studio?)

Steven: No! Alpha Lexa was valid and she should speak up about these horrid subjects.

Grey: Grey. Ooh! (Oh, yeah. We should've used a different plot, right?)

Steven: Well, damage has been done, I don't like this episode, and the whole show has gone downhill ever since.

Combo Panda: I'm cutting this scene down to before Garnet ever involved.

Alpha Lexa: You idiot! You can't do this, you-

Scene 2 - Untitled, and unfinished?

(Studio)

Shion: Like my rabbit costume?

Ryan: Yeah. Wait! There's a visitor.

Trivia

- Lore I was meant to get a bow tie and a new voice actor. The image of him is on the @KenLore Deviantart.
- The "gurke" in this episode was meant to foreshadow to the movie.
- The plot of this episode was to shut down the entire show due to Periods and Crystals.
